

2017 Annual Completion/Graduation Rates
(Student Right-to-Know Act)

The following graduation information is exhibited for compliance with the Higher Education Act of 1965, as amended. All participating Title IV institutions that enroll first-time, full-time undergraduate students are required to make available this cohort's 150 percent of normal time for completion/graduation rate. Primarily serving adult learners and/or non-traditional students, Brandman University did not enroll any first-time, full-time certificate or degree-seeking undergraduates during the fall term of the 2010/2011 academic year. As such, this graduation report reflects the completion status of undergraduates who may have earned academic credit at another institution prior to starting at Brandman University. 150% within normal time for completion is defined as a six-year graduation rate.
