Spring Semester 2012

Online Students

Message from the Chancellor

Congratulations on your upcoming graduation!

After years of study and hard work you have earned your degree. It is a remarkable accomplishment that reflects your dedication to continually strive for excellence in your life and career.

It is with great pleasure that I invite you, your families and friends to join Vice Chancellor Charles Bullock and the faculty and staff to any of our scheduled commencement ceremonies.

This is your opportunity to graduate with your peers and take pride in earning your degree from Brandman or Chapman University. As this special occasion approaches, we offer our congratulations to the members of your family.

We look forward to joining you and celebrating your accomplishments and welcoming you to the ranks of the University alumni.

Sincerely,

Gary Brahm

Message from the Vice Chancellor of Academic Affairs

Congratulations on your upcoming graduation! Although you are only a few weeks from the spring semester, your sights are likely set on celebrating the awarding of your degree with your families and friends.

We view commencement as both a celebration of our students' achievements and recognition of the families and friends who supported them. On behalf of the faculty, we look forward to sharing this proud moment with our graduates. We also look forward to welcoming you to the Brandman and Chapman alumni community, individuals who are leading and serving throughout the world.

Best wishes,

Charles A. Bullock
